We thank you for taking the time to get to know us through our profile and hope we can get to know you soon. We are looking forward to becoming first time parents through the blessing of adoption!

About Us

How we met: It was a breezy June afternoon in the coastal city of Mumbai when we first met. Though we were set up by our family, we felt comfortable in each other's company and end up spending the rest of that day together. Days turned into weekend as we continued to meet frequently and felt in love. We got engaged few months later and eventually got married in November of the same year. We have been blissfully married for 11 years now and we couldn't have asked for a better life than the past decade with each other. During the happiest and saddest of times, we found comfort in each other's arms and no other feeling can beat that. We enjoy listening to music, cooking, playing with our dog, hiking, watching movies and reading.

We have been longing to be parents for years & when we struggled naturally and we realized that adoption is our calling and we are very hopeful of this blessing. If we do have the honor of raising your child, we want you to know they would be raised surrounded by love and encouragement. We have talked about having a family from the time we are together. We want a family that is filled with love, joy, strength, health and happiness & adoption can allow this dream to come true for us.

OUR HOME

We live in Northern Virginia area with proximity to Washington DC & walking distance from a recreated farm where kids have plenty of opportunities to meet the farm animals and take various classes. We own a beautiful multilevel three bedroom town house in a safe, well managed community with good ranking schools & plenty of play areas.

On the weekends, we try to take advantage of facilities in our beautiful neighborhood such as riding bikes on the trails, visiting museums, walking our dog at parks, exploring restaurants and hosting friends at our house for dinner.

MEET OUR PARENTS: God has blessed us both with supportive parents & extended family & they are all excited about our adoption plan.

OUR PET Ziggy is one & half year old, very friendly beautiful mutt. She adores kids, enjoys cuddles, chasing squirrels, playing with her toys & other dogs.

We are humbled and honored that you have chosen to view our profile to get a glimpse of who we are. We hope these pages provided you a genuine sense of who we are and the love we have to offer. We cannot imagine how difficult this decision is & have so much respect for you.

We would love an open relationship with you and your extended family. We know that your specific desire may change with various seasons in your life but we promise to honor our commitment in our action. We look forward to sharing holidays & culture with you & your loved ones. We hope you find peace in whatever decision you make. We are praying for you and your child.
