

THE PAGES

Hello!

Thank you for taking the time to learn more about who we are, the things we love and our life! God led us down the perfect path and we are so excited to be bringing a child into our family! We hope our story will be one you consider as a home for your child. Please know that no matter what you choose, we wish you and your child all the best. While it's hard to capture our life in a few short pages, we hope this gives you a glimpse and we look forward to meeting you.

Home on the Ranch

Eight years ago, Cody and Jen moved to her family ranch nestled in the heart of the Texas Hill Country. Together, their families brought the 112-year-old homestead back to life.

"We are ready to give our unconditional love to your child and expand our family through the miracle of adoption!"

CODY + JEN

Your child will have the opportunity to explore the great outdoors with cattle grazing in the pastures, deer jumping fences, gathering eggs in the hen house and spending time with family nearby. We love cooking and spending time outside.

A LITTLE ABOUT US

How we met:

Our paths must have crossed 100 times throughout our lives but didn't meet until the perfect time. Cody grew up in Bangs, Tx and Jen is from Llano, Tx. As kids, they were involved in athletics, UIL, 4-H and FFA - they even showed cattle at the same places, but somehow never met. After High School, they went to Tarleton State University, had similar friends, and went to the same places. It wasn't until after graduation, they finally met when they both began their careers.

Traditions + Adventures

Together we love to see and experience new places, cultures, and foods! We appreciate the beauty of the world around us, and try to soak in as much as we can, from morning runs to everyday happenings. We have been blessed to have had the opportunity to explore what the world has to offer. We can't wait to take your child on family adventures and embrace cultures around the world.

Welcome to our family, and welcome home.

We grew up as small-town kids and raised in loving Christian homes by families who taught us the value of hard work and dedication. Over the years, our families have become friends who share a common bond and are ready to welcome a child to the family. We want to share a little more about each of us, who we are and our love for one another.
