Bergeron

Hello! You are brave, you are beautiful, you are loved.

Thank you for taking the time to get to get to know us! We would be thrilled and grateful to be chosen. We have a great desire to become parents but our struggle with infertility has made that dream difficult to attain. We hope as you read about us you will find comfort in knowing how much we want to share our lives with you and your child! We believe your adoption plan is made from love and courage and we would be honored to join you on this journey.

- Our home sits on 2 acres so there is a nice big backyard for kids to run around in. Greg plans to build a jungle gym once they're old enough.
- Our community also has nearby playgrounds and a library with fun and educational activities for children.
- We have 2 cats, Hildi and Winnie. They enjoy playing outside and sleeping a lot.
- We plant a garden every year with flowers and vegetables.

- To be open with your child about who they are and where they come from
- To always provide the opportunity for communication
- To provide everything they need and support them in everything they do
- To surround them with love, laughter and fun
