UP for a bit of fun, new adventures and family? We have been enjoying adventures together for 18 years and are looking forward to adding a child to our outings, as well as the child's first family. We look forward to an open adoption with visits together, phone calls and pictures being shared.

OUR GREATEST ADVENTURE WILL BE TOGETHER

We know that you are faced with a incredibly hard decision right now, and we are honored that you have taken the time to get to know more about us.

We would like to make the following promise to you.

We promise we will raise this child so that:

- Many perspectives can be seen
- All lifestyles embraced and cultures celebrated
- There will be a love of self
- The good can be seen in each and every person

We promise to honor you and your willingness to have communication, today, tomorrow and forever. This child will always know of the love you have, the sacrifices you made and how extremely proud we are that you are now part of our family.

We hope that this gives you some idea of who we are as a family and as parents. We would love to get to know more about you as we embark on this adventure together.

With Love and Blessings,
