dear
friend,

Thank you for taking the time to learn about our family. ¡Gracias por tomarse el tiempo para conocer nuestra familia! We want you to know how much we admire your courage as you consider what is best for your baby. This is undoubtedly one of the most difficult decisions you will ever make. We want you to be assured that if you choose our family you and your child will be welcomed into our family.

OUR STORY

Technology led us to each other. We met online and hit it off right away! While we were dating we shared some of our favorite activities: going on hikes, playing board games, visiting with family and friends, going to shows, going to Church together and participating in community activities and outreach, activities we have continued during our three years of marriage. We've also enjoyed traveling together while showing each other our favorite places and exploring new adventures together! Our faith is an essential part of our life. We hope to share the joys of loving God and embracing the beautiful plan that He has for our lives with the little one who joins our family.

About by Josh Cara

When I first met Cara, I was immediately drawn to her confidence. Cara is also one of the most adventurous people I know. She has traveled extensively and has lived in several countries outside of the US. She speaks Spanish fluently, and gets compliments on her ability from our native Spanish speaking friends! Cara is very devoted to her family and friends. I could not think of a better person to teach and raise our future children than Cara.

About by Cara Josh

Josh is my favorite person! Josh has a quiet demeanor that draws people to him and when he says what is on his mind people stop and listen. Josh is always up for an adventure - he loves to travel, read, and his scientific mind likes discovering how something works. Josh has a great sense of humor and has me laughing all the time. He catches you off guard with his quick witty comments and playful spirit. Josh will make a great father as kids are naturally drawn to him!
