ABOUT US

How we met: It was a breezy June afternoon in the coastal city of Mumbai when we first met. We felt comfortable in each other's company and spent the rest of that day together. Days turned into weekends as we continued to meet frequently and fell in love. We got engaged a few months later and eventually married in the same year. We have been blissfully married for 12 years now, and we couldn't have asked for a better life than the past decade with each other. During the happiest and saddest times, we found comfort in each other's arms.

We have been longing to be parents for years. When we struggled naturally and realized that open adoption is our calling. We are very hopeful of this blessing. If we do have the honor of raising your child, we want you to know they would be raised surrounded by love and encouragement. We want a family filled with love, joy, strength, health, and happiness & adoption can allow this dream to come true for us.

OUR HOME

We live in the Northern Virginia area with a proximity to Washington DC & walking distance from a recreated farm for kids to meet farm animals and take various classes. We live in a diverse area that is inclusive & friendly. With three stories and four bedrooms, it is a home we can grow into and has plenty of room for playing and welcoming family and friends. There are many things we love about our house, the location being one of our favorites. It is a safe, well-managed community with good-ranking schools & plenty of play areas.

On the weekends, we take advantage of the facilities in our beautiful neighborhood such as riding bikes on the trails, visiting museums, walking our dog at parks, exploring restaurants, and hosting friends at our house for dinner.

OUR PET Ziggy is a three-year-old, very friendly beautiful mutt. She adores kids, and enjoys cuddles, chasing squirrels, and playing with her toys & other dogs.

OUR FAMILY

MEET OUR PARENTS: Our families are open-hearted people whose support is unwavering. They are overjoyed to welcome a child into the family via adoption and will provide them with unconditional love.

OUR BELIEF & PROMISE

Our child's adoption will be embraced and talked about openly, honestly, and often. We wish and hope to include you in special moments and occasions, in whatever ways you're most comfortable—from letters and photos to video calls, and gathering together. Above all, we want our child to feel connected to his or her birth family, and heritage and for them to know that they came into our lives because of an incredibly beautiful, selfless act of great love.
