Hello,

Thank you for taking some time to get to know us. Choosing life for your baby is the most courageous decision anyone could make. We are humbled by this selfless choice you are considering. We are excited for the opportunity to get to know you. Our desire is to know both your dreams and aspirations, as well as those for your child. After looking over our profile, if you should have any questions please reach out to us.

This is us

We met at church about 20 years ago and have been best friends ever since. Together, we love to find adventure through hiking local trails and traveling to new places. We married May of 2008 and both finish our education before we pursued our dream of a family. Becoming a mom and dad is our greatest adventure yet.

To the world you
may be one person;
but to one person
you may be the world.

Home Sweet Home

Meet our dogs Callie and Cooper!

We don't have to travel far to find fun. Our neighborhood has lots to do: trails, the lake, pool, soccer field, & playground.

The Nursery is ready!!!
Lee decorated our first nursery but this time I was the mastermind behind it.

About Lee (By Whitney)

What I love most about Lee...

Well, being married over 15 years there is a lot I love about Lee! He is a great husband and he is an amazing father. He makes me laugh and smile daily. He is smart, kind, and outgoing. He is my best friend, and was my motivation throughout nursing school. Lee is completely selfless, always putting mine and Theo's needs above his own. He is a great provider for our family, but also knows the importance of family time!

About Whitney (By Lee)

What I love most about Whitney...

She's the wind in my sail and the adventure to my travels. She loves deeper than most, and isn't afraid to show it. She's always looking out for others and trying to make them feel loved and appreciated. She's my "partner in crime" and "travel buddy". I love that we can truly share life together. She is an amazing mother always looking out for Theo, and her willingness to put family first.

Hi. I'm Theo...

Theo was born in 2019 and adopted at birth through Abrazo. We have an open adoption with Theo's birth mom. We love that she is part of our family.

Theo is excited to become a big Brother but he can't decide if he wants a little brother or a little sister . :)

We love to Travel!

Fun times with Theo's Birth Mom!!

Our family and friends are all very supportive of our decision to adopt again. They know open adoption means more than a new baby to love , but also the addition of more extended family members. We believe that the more people a child has to love them, the better off the child will be. We are excited for our family to grow.

We promise to love unconditionally. We will tuck him or her in at night, read bedtime stories, and say our prayers. We will travel the world, and do everything we can to help your child live out his or her dreams. Because we believe that knowing where you come from is so important, we promise to remind him or her how much you love them every day. It's an amazing gift of life you have given.

Thank you so much for getting to know us. No matter where your path leads you, we hope that you can find happiness and fulfillment. We would be honored for the opportunity to get to know you. Follow your heart and know that we are praying for you.

With love,
Lee and Whitney
