

It's nice to meet you.

We met at church
over 20 years ago &
have been friends ever since.

Together, we love to find adventures through hiking local trails and traveling to new places. We married May of 2008 and both finished our education before we pursued our dream of a family. Becoming a mom and dad is our GREATEST adventure yet.

Lee is a Financial Advisor.

I truly enjoy anything outdoors.

What I love most about Lee... he is a great husband and an amazing father! He is playful, kind, outgoing and so very smart. He is my best friend and was my motivation throughout nursing school. Lee is selfless, always putting mine and Theo's needs above his own. He is a great provider for our family, but also knows the importance of family time.

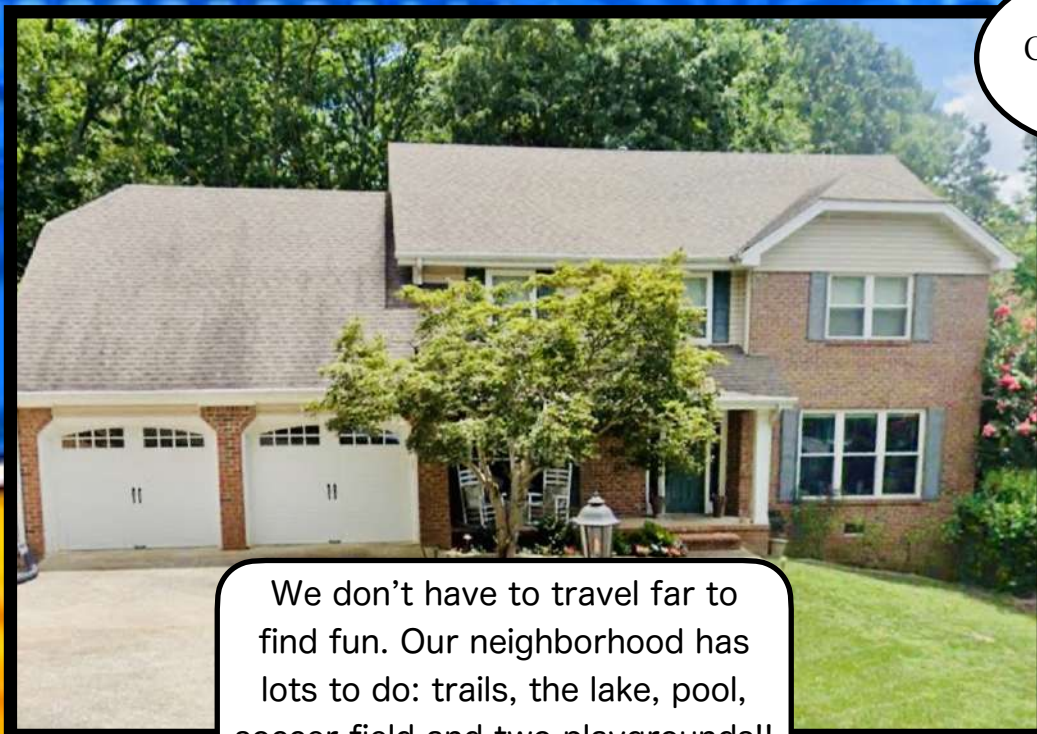

What I love most about Whitney...she's the wind in my sails and the adventure to my travels. She loves deeper than most, and isn't afraid to show it. She's my "partner in crime" and "travel buddy". I love that we can truly share life together. She is an amazing mother always looking out for Theo, and her willingness to put family first.

Fun fact about me, I'm really good at finding four leaf clovers.

Whitney is a Nurse.

We don't have to travel far to find fun. Our neighborhood has lots to do: trails, the lake, pool, soccer field and two playgrounds!!

AWW...

The Nursery is ready!! Lee decorated our first nursery but this time I was the mastermind behind it.

I recently finished making a baby blanket that matches the nursery.

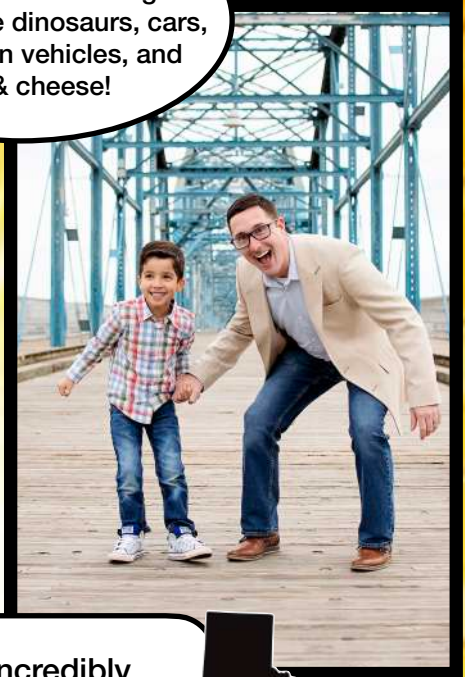

The sign behind the crib "Forever Grateful" will be a daily reminder of just how special you and your child are to us.

A D O P T I O N

Hi! My name is Theo.
I can't wait to be a big brother! I love dinosaurs, cars, construction vehicles, and Mac & cheese!

Adoption made us a family 5 years ago and we are incredibly grateful. Our lives were forever changed for the better by Theo's first Mom.

Tennessee

Texas

I chose to be Santa Clause for Halloween last year and mom and dad were my elves.

I told you I LOVE Mac & cheese! I had a tattoo to prove it!

I love my Mamma Cassie and going back to Texas to visit her every year.
