

Blake & Kate Hannah

About us

- ✧ We live in Frisco, Texas
- ✧ Met in 2017 and married in 2021
- ✧ Bonded over our love of dogs, music, and computer programming

"Blake is the best person I know. He's strong, smart, and more sensitive than he looks. He takes life in stride and works hard to take care of his family. He has an excellent sense of humor and is just the right amount of "whimsy"... he is a great husband, and will be a fantastic dad!" - Kate

"Kate is extremely intelligent (even if she says otherwise) and is the most kind-hearted, empathetic, and sincere person I have ever met. She is very passionate and has a thirst for learning that you don't often find. She is patient, thoughtful, funny, and is a great listener - no matter the topic." - Blake

Our Home

We live in Frisco, Texas in a safe, family-oriented community.

We both work from home and have flexibility in our schedules.

We have a good sized, fully fenced backyard with a large covered patio.

We only live 15 minutes away from Blake's family, who we see often!

There are excellent schools and kid-friendly activities close by.

We love taking walks on the neighborhood nature trails and going to the community pool.
